

Connecticut State Grange Officers 1934

With the 91st session of the Connecticut State Grange recently passing into the annals of history, we thought you might like a look a little farther back. The year was 1934, and these were the officers of the Connecticut State Grange. We believe them to be: first row, left to right: Ceres Anna Bengston of Suffield; Flora Mable Church of Willimantic; Lecturer Sally Curtis of Plainville; Pomona Jennie Treat of Oxford; L.A.S. Hazel Young of Wallingford. Second row: Edgar L. Tucker of Trumbull, Louis Tolles, Executive Committee member, Southington — then Union; Secretary Ard Welton of Plymouth; Master Frank Peet of Kent;

Chaplain, the Rev. Charles Downs of Goodyear; Third row: Legislative Committee members William Templeton of Kent and A.W. Spaulding of Suffield; Treasurer D.A. St. John of New Canaan; Legislative Committee member William Curtis of Bridgewater; Overseer Charles Adams of Groton; Executive Committee member J. Arthur Sherwood of Easton; Gatekeeper Harold Kelsey of Middletown; Executive Committee member Minor Ives of Meriden and Assistant Steward Sherman K. Ives of Morris. Thanks to Ekonk Grange for sharing this precious photograph.
